BAPTIST CHURCH

MEMBERSHIP CANDIDATES SPRING 2019

Lisa Hodge

I went to church with my dad when I was 5 years old and learned how to read the Bible at Sunday School. I went to church until my dad passed away on May 3, 1976. Then I stopped going to church. I started going back in 2005 at Forward Baptist Church because my kids went to the floor hockey programme. I enjoyed being here and learning. I really started reading the Bible on my own and God helped me understand that Jesus had died for my sins and rose again. I was baptised at the church Easter Sunday last year.

I was raised Catholic and dropped away from the church in my early 20s. I was without church until I was 45 and someone at my work invited me to a men's breakfast at a pentecostal church. I then started attending a pentecostal church and a few years later I was water baptised and accepted God in my life and he has been keeping me aware of my sin. Before he came into my life, I felt no remorse over sin and now I feel remorse. God is the Lord and Savior and to be in his family I have to follow the 10 commandments and recognize he gave his one and only Son to die for me and I gather weekly to give praise to God.
